TWENTY ARK. STRIKERS FLOGGED

AUDITORIUM URGED AS C. OF C'S. CHIEF OBJECTIVE IN 1923

ANNUAL MEETING ATTENDED BY OVER 500 ENTHUSIASTIC CITIZENS; FIVE NEW DIRECTORS ARE CHOSEN

A municipal auditorium was placed first on the list of things to be attained, at the annual meeting of the chamber of commerce A year ago the Texas-Oklahoma fair was fixed as the chief objective and 1922 saw it realized, so that those who attended the great meeting Tuesday night have basis for their hope that the same spirit will achieve an auditorium in 1923

The 1922 meeting possessed all of the enthusiasm and all of the inspiration that have been characteristic of the annual gatherings of the chamber of commerce for nearly a score of years. More than 500 wedged themselves into the basement of the First Baptist church ate the excellent repast, heard the splendid music and inspiring talks and participated in the pep and earnestness that marked the occasion

The election of directors resulted in five new members of the board being chosen, George Keith was the only old member whose term expired to be again chosen A. H Britain, W B Hamilton, George Keith J T Harrell, F A Rogers and Marvin Smith were chosen out of the twelve nominees

The chief address of the meeting was made by Ed Overholser, who is both president and manager of the Oklahoma City chamber of commerce and who delivered an address that was as convincing in its logic as it was pleasing in its delivery, himself a practical chamber of commerce man Mr Overholser brought home to his hearers the fact that if a city is to grow and prosper an efficient chamber of commerce is vital

The presence of more than 100 visitors from Lawton Oklahoma and of a number of guests from other points in Oklahoma and Texas added much to the occasion The decision of the supreme court in the Red river case was rendered null and void by their presence for Red river was obliterated, Lawton was annexed to Texas by one speaker and the work was undone shortly after by another speaker who annexed Wichita Falls to Oklahoma The neighborly cordiality that marked the occasion was not the least of its many happy features

The need of a public auditorium which was first on the list of 1923's objectives submitted by the program of work committee was but one of a number of things placed on the years schedule Other items were

Taking of steps to realize full value from the junior college

Development of new trade territory of Wichita by additional rail connections

Co-operation in the movements for a free bridge north of Burkburnett and for better roads in Clay county

Organization of a municipal band

Definite steps for colonization of the irrigated area

Steps for less sensationalism in newspapers

Careful study of the tax situation

Reestablishment of a tourist park and last but not least—

The inculcation of the 'buy at home' doctrine more thoroughly in the hearts of the citizenship

Although there was only one formal talk on the program, a number of others besides Mr Overholser were called upon Major General C J Bailey retired and Congressman Elmer Thomas of the Oklahoma visitors G H Jackson of Lallax and J A Kemp were also called upon

Tribute to J. A. Kemp

Mr Kemp was given a real tribute as he rose to speak all present standing up to greet him, those who recalled that at the banquet a year

DEBT COMMISSION DEADLOCKED UNTIL BRITISH GO HOME

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON Jan 17 — The British and American debt commission has reached a point in their negotiations where it virtually is agreed no further progress can be made until the British commissioners have returned to London and conferred with their government

Despite the exchanges which have taken place since the arrival of the British group it was indicated today in authoritative quarters that no result had been produced of a character positive enough to warrant concrete recommendations to congress for amendments of the funding law

The two commissions will hold another joint meeting tomorrow but it is expected to constitute only a brief taking preparatory to the departure of the British from Washington They will sail from New York Saturday and any attempt to establish even a tentative agreement as to terms of settlement of the British war debt is expected to be delayed for several weeks.

LITTLE DAUGHTER OF WOMAN FLOGGED IDENTIFIES PARTY

SAYS MAN HELD IN JAIL IS ONE OF GROUP OF TWELVE OR MORE.

GOES BEFORE GRAND JURY IN SESSION AT HOUSTON

Other Arrests Are Expected in Connection With Case, Officers Report.

HOUSTON, Jan. 17.—Bonnie Lee eight year old daughter of Mrs. H. H. Harrison, taken today to the county jail to see a man arrested last night and held as a suspect, declared that he was one of a group of 12 or more men who took her mother out and flogged her on the night of January 5. The girl was then taken before the grand jury.

HOUSTON Jan 17—Solution of the Goose Creek flogging case was expected here today following the arrest late last night of a Goose Creek man Sheriff T Binford stated he had sufficient evidence against this man and expected to gain from him the names of all parties involved

The man will be brought before the grand jury this morning and will face Mrs R H Harrison and R A Armand who were beaten by a masked mob on the outskirts of Goose Creek on the night of January 5

It became known here this morning that Goose Creek klan No 4 Knights of the Ku Klux Klan over the signature of its exalted cyclops last night condemned the flogging The klan denied responsibility for the act and tendered its fullest assistance in discovering and punishing the assailants

That the arrest last night is the first of a series was the sheriff's statement on his return from Goose Creek He let it be known that at least three other persons were under surveillance and probably would be taken into custody by his department before a day or 48 hours

The statement of the Goose Creek klan follows

Klan Statement

"We sincerely deplore the whipping of the man and woman in this community a few days ago by persons unknown to us We do not condone this act but condemn it in most stringent terms

We do not believe in the theory of any man or body of men taking the execution of the law into their own hands, and we condemn that spirit of lawlessness in any and every community We believe in the principles and the teachings and the tenets of the Ku Klux Klan which are Christian and honorable and which believes in and advocates the enforcement of the law by the properly constituted authorities in a legal and orderly way

'This klan has not now nor has it had any knowledge of the perpetrators of this offense and it is ready to a member to assist the grand jury, the district attorney's office and the sheriff's department of this county in every way in locating the perpetrators and seeing that the full punishment of the law is dealt out to them

Goose Creek klan No 4

'By the exalted cyclops

Almost at the point of exhaustion from the strain—he had been up since 6 a m, and had eaten of a scant meal during the day—the sheriff delivered his prisoner at the county jail after midnight

Denial of some of the statements attributed to her in connection with the whipping was made by Mrs Harrison in an interview yesterday She declared that at no time had she said that men in klan regalia were among the whipping party members She declared further that she did not believe that the klan had a hand in it although I believe it possible that some members of the klan were included in the party

FRANCE DELIVERS ULTIMATUM TO COAL OPERATORS IN RUHR

MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO ACT UNLESS DELIVERIES ARE MADE.

WILL GO TO JAIL SAYS STINNES REPRESENTATIVE

No Reparations Coal Is Being Sent to Either France Or Belgium.

DUESSELDORF, Jan. 17.—(By 10 p. m.)—It was officially announced by General De Goutte this afternoon that the military operations of the Ruhr occupation are now completely finished.

The French will take possession of the mines throughout the district tomorrow morning, placing military guards at the head of every pit. The Ruhr magnates were informed late this afternoon that their property will be confiscated and will be worked under French management for the benefit of the reparations account.

By Associated Press.

DUESSELDORF, Jan. 17.—Ruhr valley coal operators had before them today the French ultimatum that if deliveries were not resumed this morning the "military authorities would take such measures as they deemed necessary."

The attitude of the German magnates, however, seems to be epitomized in a mark made by Herr Thomas, representative of the Stinnes interests, who said:

"We are perfectly willing to go to jail but under no conditions shall we resume deliveries."

So far as was indicated in advice reaching this city this morning not a chunk of reparations coal or coke was being sent to France or Belgium by any of the Ruhr mines. It was reported that in some instances shipments intended for south Germany were being diverted westward by the occupation authorities. It was said that deliveries to Italy were continuing.

At the conference here yesterday between the French authorities and the operators, General Simon said to the Germans:

"We have not summoned you here for a discussion, but to transmit to you the orders of our government. If you do not see fit to obey them you will be prosecuted before a courtmartial, condemned and imprisoned."

Leave the Hall.

The industrial leaders filed out of the room without uttering a word, but once outside of the conference hall they made no secret of their determination to go to jail rather than submit.

Thirty-two labor leaders, representing all the districts and all the trades in the Ruhr, including the Catholic socialists and communists syndicates of miners, railroad men and steel and iron workers, were introduced. Dr. Greetzner, Prussian governor of Duesseldorf province, acted as their spokesman.

General Simon told the labor leaders that France was the friend of the working man. The German government, he declared, was responsible for the recent events and was willing to sacrifice the working men to its imperialistic policy. It had permitted the food stocks to become depleted and cared little whether its own nationals starved or not.

Dr. Greatzner, laboring under great emotion, rose and said:

"I cannot listen to such lies, to such an unjust arraignment of my government. I withdraw."

He then left the conference.

General Simon, continuing, requested the labor men to get into touch with their comrades in the Duesseldorf and Duisburg zones, which had been under French occupation for two years, and learn how well the working man had been treated. The leaders agreed to continue work so long as there was work for them to do, but expressed the opinion that circumstances might cause the industries to shut down. For the present they would go on as usual.

The French are resolved to carry out their threats of reprisals and imprisonment, it would appear, and the Germans are determined to resist the developments likely to occur if by five o'clock this afternoon the magnates do not recede from their present stand.

Experts are at work on a plan for operating the mines with German labor and French engineers. Additional engineers have been instructed to come from France immediately and are expected to arrive by tonight. They number 200 men—less than one for every pit head in the Ruhr.

RESOLUTION ADVOCATES MORATORIUM FOR GERMANY

LONDON, Jan. 17.—A resolution advocating a moratorium for Germany for an agreed number of years, the immediate fixing of the reparations sums which that country could pay within a reasonable period, and some form of international loan to her, was passed by the Association of British Chambers of Commerce today.

The president, Sir Arthur Shirley-Benn, in asking that the resolution be adopted without discussion, said: "We want the entente to continue."

Arthur Balfour of Sheffield, in seconding the motion, expressed the belief that the members were all in sympathy with France and that they did not want to make her position more difficult.

BANDIT IS WOUNDED IN FIGHT WITH OFFICERS

PAWHUSKA, OKLA., Jan. 17.—One of the five men who late yesterday robbed the State Bank of Cambridge, Kan., of approximately $30,500 in cash and bonds, was being held by police here today while physicians treated wounds which he sustained when he and his companions engaged in three fierce gun fights with pursuing officers in Kansas and Oklahoma.

The man, whose name officers refused to divulge was captured late last night in a farm house 10 miles northwest of here where he was left by the band because of his wounds.

Van Hamilton of Cambridge, who was kidnaped by the robbers and forced to accompany them on their dash for freedom because he had witnessed the holdup, was found in a barn on the outskirts of the city shortly after the arrest of the bandit. He was suffering from a severe wound in the head, thought to have been inflicted by the bandits, and is delirious today.

The wounded hold up man, according to police, confessed his part in the robbery, and stated that the band was led by Al Spencer, notorious outlaw. His injuries are not expected to prove fatal.

GRAND JURY MAKES INSPECTION OF JAIL, MAY PROBE ESCAPE

Just before the noon recess Wednesday morning the members of the grand jury together with the district attorney and assistant paid a visit to the county jail. They remained there fully 30 minutes.

The purpose of the visit is not known. It is a duty that evolves on every grand jury to pay an inspection visit to the jail and make a report of their findings. This is usually done, however, on the final day of the session.

It is believed that a purpose of the visit was to more thoroughly learn how Henry J. Toussaint made his escape from the death cell last Wednesday night, where he had been placed the morning before by Sheriff Murphy in solitary confinement.

LARGE INCREASE IN NUMBER OF CATTLE ON FEED THIS YEAR

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—There were 23 per cent more cattle on feed in the 11 corn belt states on January 1, 1923, than on January 1, 1922, according to an estimate issued today by the division of crop and livestock estimates. This 23 per cent increase is indicated for both groups of states—those east and those west of the Mississippi river. The estimate of December 1 showed an increase of 27 per cent over December 1, 1921—the six states west of the river an increase of 36 per cent and the five states east an increase of 20 per cent.

Of the states east of the river, all showed an increase of percentage over December 1, except Illinois. Of the states west of the river, Iowa, Missouri and Kansas showed a decrease in percentage since December 1; Nebraska showed an increase and South Dakota and Minnesota remained the same.

The movement of stocker and feeder cattle into these states during December continued heavy. Available information indicates that these cattle in December, 1922, were of light weight, with the percentage of heavy feed much smaller than during the preceding months.

Called Neighbor Lady a Liar, and Draws Fine of $5

A woman was fined $4 and costs by Justice of the Peace O. L. Gibbs Wednesday morning upon trial of the case in which she stood charged of calling a neighbor woman a liar.

It developed that the row originated over the fact that the other woman's boy had been hit over the head with an iron pipe while on his way from school, Tuesday noon.

The other woman said she had gone over to the house of the woman charged to speak to the woman's husband about the difficulty between her own boy and her son. The husband was not at home and the row took place across the width of an alley.

Testimony was also introduced to show that the woman charged had used several other ugly expressions.

What Is a Gas "Peak Load?"

When you want natural gas for heating, everybody over the territory wants it.

In a spell of cold weather, which may last for only a day or two, everybody wants ALL the gas he can get.

This tremendous demand is our "peak load."

Only Once a Year

It may occur only once each winter, or it may happen several times. Last winter it was reached only once.

That "peak load" calls for an enormous amount of gas—four or five times the usual quantity.

Hence, to render the best service to you, our supply of gas and our transporting facilities, for three or four days each winter, must be at least four times the capacity called for in normal use.

Cannot Pay for Itself

That again calls for a great investment on which there can be no immediate return—for the combined "peak load" sales do not pay enough to return interest on the required investment.

Therein the gas business differs from any other. There are times when the more we deliver the more we lose.

Our great equipment is necessary for your comfort, however, and the high quality of our service is better understood when you know these facts.

FITTS ANNOUNCES NEW SPEED LIMITS ARE NOW IN FORCE

FIFTEEN MILES IN FIRE LIMITS AND 25 ELSEWHERE WILL BE LIMIT

STRICT ENFORCEMENT WILL BE REQUIRED

Announcement Made After Constitutionality of Lower Limits Is Questioned.

The speed limit has been raised in the city in the fire limits the speed now 15 miles per hour in the residential section motorists will be allowed to go 25 miles per hour.

Following the argument in a case in the city court Wednesday morning in which the foregoing acted as attorney Commissioner Fitts made the above announcement. It was brought out in the discussion that the city ordinance setting the speed limit on city streets conflicted with the state law and in a test case had been declared unconstitutional.

The greater speed rate of speed will be observed but traffic will be on margin every violator caught exceeding the speed limit as much as one mile will be arrested and charged with the offense of speeding. Commissioner Fitts said when informed of the new ruling.

The case in the Wednesday morning court involving a speeding charge was dismissed when the facts were presented to Judge Martin. The law was declared unconstitutional some time ago in the cases where an appeal was made in the county the cases has been quashed.

In connection with the clearance of traffic rules here it was brought out in the city hall Wednesday that the driver on the right always was given the right of way. Commissioner Fitts said that a number of motorists seemed to have the idea that traffic on thoroughfares going east and west was given the right-of-way but it was a mistaken idea as the state law specifies that the man on the right is to be given the right-of-way.

ago his health would not permit him to be present found especial pleasure in remarking the evidences of vigor and health that gave little lie to his past illness and Mr. Kemp strengthened this impression by making what was declared to be one of the best speeches of his career.

B. A. Stanton who presented the report of the program of work committee, and W. D. Cline 1923 campaign chairman also had shares in the program. Mr. Cline's instructions to teams were rather wide of the mark but his hearers were too thoroughly entertained by his barrage of humor to note the departure.

Music Is Feature.

The work committee's suggestion of a municipal band was given force by the presence of the First Artillery band which rendered several selections that literally brought down the house and that emphasized the value of good band music to all present. Other musical features included community singing of the new Wichita Falls song led by R. D. Shepherd and the singing by the Lawtonites of some very appropriate songs a violin solo by F. A. Nelson with Miss Abernathy as accompanist and a vocal duet by Mesdames W. M. Priddy and F. T. Tullis with Miss Walsh as accompanist.

The invocation by Rev. O. L. Lowery opened the meeting and members then marked their ballots for director. C. H. Clark was appointed chairman of a committee to count the votes. A selection by the artillery band followed and then attention was given the tempting and other items excellently cooked and efficiently served by several score women from the Y. W. C. A. and Business Women's club.

The report of the committee of work was presented by B. A. Stanton of the committee and then E. L. Overholser of Oklahoma City was given a characteristic introduction by G. E. Wood chairman the subject being "Selling Your Chamber of Commerce."

"Selling a C. of C."

Mr. Overholser without any attempt at oratorical effect but with simple directness and sincerity presented to his hearers some of the fundamental principles of chamber of commerce activity. He sought to show the reason for the existence of cities pointing out that back in the earliest days of the human race men lived by hunting and moved from place to place to find something to kill for his subsistence. Later he became a herdsman and moved from place to place to find pasturage for his flocks. It was not until he became a tiller of the soil that he began to build permanent dwelling places. Mr. Overholser pointed out.

"Among these primitive men" he continued "there were some either too old or otherwise incapacitated for the hunt whose job it became to care for the boys and to make the arrows for those who did hunt. As the first mechanics came in being. As time went on such men made or repaired the crude agricultural implements that their fellows used. And as they established themselves in the neighborhood of those who tilled the soil and the first communities began to develop the community idea therefore is based on man's desire to prosper and profit and there is no place in our community who belongs there today who isn't there for that purpose.

Tangible Results.

Mr. Overholser cited from the experience of the Oklahoma City chamber of commerce a number of definite tangible things that the organization had done for the community showing in one year the actual money value was in excess of $500,000. He declared a chamber of commerce to be just as much entitled to the public support as the municipal government itself and he discussed some phases of government.

"I never saw a community that had rotten government that didn't at the same time have better government than it deserved. He said your government is just what you make it.

Major General C. J. Bailey recently made a pleasing talk that completely captivated his hearers and in which he pleaded for entire neighborhood between Wichita Falls and Lawton and urged also a better understanding by the public of the army and its place for the development of the youth of the land.

W. D. Cline next gave his instructions to team workers and laid down the slogan for the campaign. "Boost like Kemp and work like Kell."

Congressman Elmer Thomas of Lawton in a brief talk made some humorous references to the recent boundary dispute and offered Wichita Falls his help and assistance in congress in all federal matters affecting the city.

J. A. Kemp recalled some of the early experiences he had in Lawton and in southwestern Oklahoma and told of the development of the section in later years. Referring briefly to the irrigation project and to his hopes for its full development Mr. Kemp urged Wichitans to visit the world more often and to acquit themselves more fully with its possibilities.

G. H. Jackson of the Dallas chamber of commerce was the concluding speaker making a brief talk in which he congratulated Wichita Falls on such a gathering and expressed a hope for more direct rail connection between Dallas and Wichita Falls.

The preparation and serving of the banquet were in charge of Mrs. L. L. Jain as general chairman assisted by Mesdames C. P. Harlsook, T. T. Reese, J. A. Kemp, Beulah Leggess and Stella Mason. Decorations were in charge of Mrs. H. H. Donald and the place cards were by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davidson. A large and efficient corps of young women assisted in the serving.

ROTARY CLUB AT VERNON ADOPTS A SLOGAN FOR CITY

VERNON, TEXAS, Jan. 17.—The Rotary club met Tuesday at the hotel for their regular weekly luncheon. The absent members were Long who has gone to New Orleans and Rhodes who was in Wichita Falls attending the Rotary convention. Hubert Voelcher of Wichita Falls was a visitor.

After the regular luncheon was served the secretary read the prize winning slogans which had been awarded to Mr. Howard and Miss Frankie Crawford for the best slogan for the county and the best for the town. Miss Crawford won the prize for the town. Her slogan was "You are not a stranger in Vernon." The prizes were given by Rotarian Jimmie Rosaman who is the manager of the Vernon Electric and Ice company. Also a committee of six were named to investigate further into the matter of a proper slogan for Vernon. The chairman appointed Ed Duke as chairman of the committee with T. H. Shive, E. C. Christian, Will Langdon, Jimmie Rosaman and Curtis Swartwood as the other members.

After the regular business was transacted the Rotarians were ready for some fun and a motion was made to fine Andy Moorland 25 cents for letting Rotarian Voelcher have a gallon of gasoline. Andy paid the fine after considerable discussion. The visitor Voelcher took part in the discussion and took the part of Andy. Then motion was made by Coffee that Voelcher be fined a quarter or be made to tell what he really received whether gasoline or something else. Rotarian Voelcher paid the fine without further argument. Ed Duckenson was fined for calling At Your Service Jimmie Mr. Rosaman. T. H. Shive was fined 25 cents for not mentioning the Lee highway at a good roads meeting at Guthrie, Miss., where he has been for a visit. He paid the fine without argument.

The committee on high school work was granted another week to make a complete report.

How to Get a Good Photograph of Yourself

SUGGESTIONS FOR WOMEN.

By IRA L. HILL

1—Your hair is the most important thing Have it shampooed, and if necessary waved the day before visiting the photographer

2—Dress your hair yourself (don't go to a hairdresser) as you usually wear it, and without a net

3—Use an ordinary street makeup but spare the rouge Red photographs black

4—Don't look dolled up or consciously pretty

5—Wear a gown with good lines that you've worn several times before and are used to If in doubt take several and let the photographer decide

6—Don't wear spangles or try to look theatrical

7—Have your picture taken at the time of day you feel best With some women it's morning with others afternoon

8—Don't have anything unusual in the way of massage or face treatment

9—In a full length picture don't wear suede or buckskin shoes they make the feet look large and thick

10—Don't dictate to the photographer

SUGGESTIONS FOR MEN.

By PIRIE MacDONALD

1—Choose your photographer more carefully than your tailor

2—If you want to look decorative go to a photographer who specializes in women's pictures

3—If you want to look like a man with lots of fight and "go" in you select a photographer who can at least match you in physical strength and give you a fully as well as a mental challenge

4—Don't expect a good picture from a photographer who can't arouse your interest and draw you into a controversy

5—Don't take your wife with you

6—Don't be photographed unless you are feeling fit

7—Don't expect "stunt" photography or freak effects to impress men who may see your picture

8—Don't dress up for a photograph look just as you ordinarily do

9—Don't think how you are going to look

10—Don't insist that your photograph must look exactly as you really do look. If you do you'll be disappointed.

Can you look into a camera and meet the result with equanimity? Or have you made up your mind that there's no use trying—you can't take a good photograph?

Most people [illegible] the latter classification

Now is it a fact that even a first top photographer can't do certain sitters justice?

Ira L. Hill [illegible] Mr Pirie MacDonald [illegible] today [illegible] the former has photographed most of the women of New York 400 and thousands of stars of the stage and screen with equal success their clothes They want their faces—at their best

A woman is most beautiful, [illegible] good clothes and among beautiful surroundings So I try to make my studio a place of beauty With fine paintings hangings and music I induce the mood most propitious for beauty

"Men" says Mr MacDonald "want their photographs to reflect strength

"To bring out this characteristic in my sitters I keep myself in physical trim so that I fling a challenge at each of them

Men think they want their photographs to look just like them until they see the results Then you find they're quite as vain as women"

UNCOMFORTABLE AFTER MEALS?

Then Try a Pinch of Black-Draught. This White-Haired Alabama Lady Says It Helped Her

DUTTON, ALA.—In recommending Thedford's Black-Draught to her friends and neighbors here, Mrs T F. Parks a well known Jackson county lady said

"I am getting up in years, my head is pretty white I have seen medicines and remedies come and go but I am taking Black-Draught, a liver medicine we have used for years—one that can be depended upon and one that will do the work

Black-Draught will relieve indigestion and constipation if taken right and I know, for I tried it. It is the best thing I have ever found for the full, uncomfortable feeling after meals

"Sour stomach and sick headache can be relieved by taking Black-Draught. It aids digestion, also assists the liver in throwing off impurities I am glad to recommend Black-Draught and do, to my friends and neighbors"

For simple common ailments, due to disordered stomach liver and bowels you will find Thedford's Black-Draught a useful and valuable remedy The purely vegetable ingredients of which Black-Draught is composed gently stimulate the liver increasing the flow of digestive juices thereby helping to prevent or relieve practically all stomach liver and intestinal ailments Insist upon Thedford's the original and genuine Black-Draught powdered herb and root liver medicine—Adv.

Collier-Landon and Legion Teams Win In League's Semi-Finals

Collier and Landon, 29, Methodist, 25.

Knights of Columbus, 22; American Legion, 27.

Collier and Landon and the Legion gained decisions over the Methodists and Knights of Columbus, respectively in the semi-finals in city league basket ball at the American Legion hall Tuesday night. Both games were up to the standard in teamwork and were witnessed by the largest and most enthusiastic crowd that has seen city league contests this season

The Collier and Landon-Methodist game was one of the most out-of-the-ordinary contests Early in the game the sporting goods crowd took the lead and retained it until near the end of the first period. Harrod with his team mates mounted the score until his team lead the score by 15 to 3 The Methodist realized the kind of basket ball that was being played and by the end of the first half had succeeded in tying the score and gaining a lead of three points At the end of the first half the score stood 20 to 17 in favor of the eventual losers.

Ten minutes of the second half passed without either team scoring The close guarding and the most efficient teamwork that has been exhibited on the legion court this season made baskets impossible for either team Bassell at center for the winners started the game back for his aggregation and Collier and Landon rallied to a lead of four points, and played for time. Clarence Neal was the only member of the Methodist line-up who was able to continue his basket tossing, at the end of the play he was credited with 21 of the 25 points scored by his team Nineteen personal fouls during the game offered ample opportunity to score on free throws; the Methodists were fairly successful.

Legion Defeats K. C.

In spite of the hard fight, close guarding and their customary good basket ball the Knights of Columbus lost to the American Legion in the second game Tuesday night by a score of 27 to 22.

Faichney and Kubecka for the defeated team lead the score in the first half and made the lead for the Knights possible at the end of the first half Faichney, in his usual good form was high point man of the game, and held the Legion to a close score until near the end of play. The Knights were handicapped without Dee, who has made most of the season at forward, he came into the game near the end of the last half Coach Jones proved a valuable man for the winners and in the short time he was in the game roped three baskets.

The close score good floor work and all round display of genuine sportsmanship placed the game one of the indoor classics that will be seen here this season and kept the large crowd of spectators on their toes and cheering throughout the game. Coach Jones, Ferguson and Collegan all furnished spectacular amusement in their unexpected goal tossing

IS GIVEN JUDGMENT FOR BALANCE ON CONTRACT ON WELL

George W Whitman was given a judgment of $1905 by Judge P A Martin of the 89th district court Wednesday morning against the Trainion oil company for balance due on a contract for cleaning out a well

The defense contended that the contract as originally made was that the plaintiff was to clean out the well in a workmanlike manner and that the cost was not to exceed $1,000 The defense had entered a cross action asking that the $1,000 paid should be refunded because the work had not been done satisfactorily

After hearing all the evidence however the court granted judgment over and above the $1,000 already paid for $1,855.

Quick Quaker Oats
Cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes

The Only Oats
That cook in five minutes

Now Quaker Oats hold supreme place, the world over, in two important ways.

They are the finest flavored oats in existence. They are flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, flavory oats. We get but ten pounds of such flakes from a bushel.

For many a year, oat lovers the world over have sent for Quaker Oats because of that matchless flavor. Those who know it will not go without it.

Now a Quick Style

Now that same flavor, that same quality, come in a Quick style.

Quick Quaker Oats cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and it cooks to perfection. It is by far the quickest cooking oats in the world.

In the Quick style the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and are partly cooked So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly.

Get Quaker Oats always, in fairness to yourself. This is the food of foods—the greatest food that grows. You want the dish delightful.

But tell your grocer which style you want, the Quick or the regular. He has both, and the price is the same for either.

THE LAW'S PROGRESS.

We hear much criticism of the laws delay of the failure of justice and the cost of it. And it is out of criticism that progress is made toward more prompt, surer and less costly justice. And while some of the guilty escape we must remember that there has been steady progress toward the amelioration of the harshness of the law and its humanization.

This progress is reviewed by the Houston Chronicle which says:

"As late as 1802, in England prisoners on trial for their lives could have no counsel. So barbaric a system has now been utterly abolished there and in Texas—and the same is substantially true as to other states—not only is every defendant guaranteed the right of counsel by the constitution but if he is unable to employ counsel the court will appoint counsel for him.

'A little more than a century ago peasants were in jail in England by hundreds for shooting pheasants. It was lawful to set steel traps and spring guns in every forest to catch or kill trespassers. Such is no longer the law. If that were done in Texas and any trespasser were killed the act would be murder.

'A hundred years ago imprisonment for debt, not only in England but in this country was a common remedy. The landlord in England could without suit or trial enter the house of the debtor take all he had and then have him flung into prison to rot and die.

"Imprisonment for debt is forbidden by the constitution of Texas and no man can enter and seize the property of any even the humblest citizen without the order of a court.

"The time has been when such a thing as property being exempt from execution and forced sale was unknown now in all but a few—if indeed any—of the states exemption laws exist.

'The policy of exemption begun many years ago has expanded until a general system of homestead exemption prevails in the United States.

"It should be a matter of pride to every Texan that the young republic of Texas enacted the first homestead law in all the history of the world.

'A little more than a century ago 160 offenses were punishable by death under the English law and death could be inflicted by quartering and disembowelling and other kindred cruelties and the right of appeal was unknown. In Texas only two or three offenses are now punishable by death.

It has only been within the last few years that there was any court in England vested with the function of revising criminal trials. Now there is such a court presided over by a judge whose salary is $50,000.

'The time was in the memory of thousands now living when no party to a civil proceeding in a Texas court was allowed to testify and it has been but little if any more than 25 years since a defendant in a criminal case was allowed in Texas to testify in his own behalf.

'Now a defendant may testify in his own behalf may appear by himself or by counsel, has the unlimited right of appeal in criminal cases, and the state pays the expense of the record.

"No cruel or unusual punishment can be inflicted. No man's home can be taken for debt no man can be imprisoned for debt every man has the right of trial by jury the right to counsel and the right of appeal. Furthermore the lowliest, poorest, humblest citizen imprisoned or held in custody, can invoke the remedy of the writ of habeas corpus in order that the cause of his detention may be inquired into.

"When we contrast conditions and processes as relate both to the civil and the criminal law as they prevailed a century ago and as they are now we can but realize that the past century has been marked by great increase in enlightenment and by a humanization of the law in accordance with the fundamentals of right and justice.

'It only remains for Texas courts to liberalize the administration of the law and subordinate rules of procedure to the infinitely more important objective of attaining the right and justice of every cause.'

ADDING TO THE SPAN OF HUMAN LIFE

A child born in the United States today has a life expectation of between 54 and 55 years.

In New Zealand where conditions are more favorable life expectancy is well over 60 years.

With the sanitary and medical knowledge we now have the average span of life ought to be extended to sixty five years.

These are statements of Dr. A. S. Knight of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in an address before the Association of Life Insurance Presidents.

Great progress, indeed, has been made in this direction in recent years. A number of years have been added to life expectancy in the United States in the past twenty years. The death rate has been decreasing and the figures for the first ten months of 1922 were reported as particularly satisfactory and as showing that progress was being made.

It is estimated that every year of added life for an adult means a net increase of $500 to the national wealth, quite apart from the immense social gains and the increased happiness to many families. Years can be added to the average of human life by better living conditions—better housing and better food and better clothing by better habits of living, by the application of medical and sanitary knowledge, and by making industry safer.

Human life is a precious thing yet there has been a prodigal and useless waste of it. It is, indeed one of the great and worthy movements of our time to conserve human life and to extend the span of mortality. More and more our great life insurance companies are joining in this effort. Many of them are spreading knowledge in one way or another that will tend to add to the average life expectancy. Some of them offer free medical examination at least once a year and some even offer medical treatment in certain cases. And it is the observation of Dr. Knight that "it is most encouraging that such expenditures as have been incurred by life insurance companies have paid good dividends."

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

'IT DOTH NOT YET APPEAR"

There is the rustle and the hustle and the bustle of the day. Every man and woman—even to the child—busy at the string of life.

And then the gray of the closing chapter. The wheels stop. Offices are emptied. Cars, and trains and hurrying feet—and then home! A little reading, a little playing a little walk out under the stars—and then that brief little trot of ours into dreams and forgetfulness.

Such passing chapters! Almost before we know it, the book is finished.

Just one short year ago this old year was new—and now we are in a new one! And in just a little while this new one will be old. But there is nothing to worry about and everything to take heart in—for 'it doth not yet appear what we shall be."

Each of us may be building greater and surer than we know.

It is our privilege to do our work and to get happiness out of it. And if we are not getting happiness out of it, we are not doing our work well.

Our duty is to do the job at hand with zest and not mind the results. They will take care of themselves.

To be thoughtful efficient, considerate—to ask few questions to smile through to believe in ultimate good and above all to keep faith with the faintest whisperings of our honest nature—then what matter if 'it doth not yet appear what we shall be'.

At the fittest time the most obscure hero may have his inning.

Your bravest task is to keep fit and ready. So that when your greatest hour of opportunity does come you won't have to run off and wash your hands before stepping out before the crowd from where you stand to answer— ready!

THE CALENDAR

Here is a calendar to serve the year
A page to mark each day that's new begun
Behold the first which wears its figure one
At dawn another morning will appear
But will it come with sorrow or with cheer?
There is no clue for men to seize upon,
Time breeds the hour which lives and passes on
Nor stays for laughter or the glistening tear
This day is fair enjoy it while you may'
Tomorrow you must tear away its page
You cannot lengthen it or bid it stay
Its measured sands run swiftly through the gauge
But this is sure who wakes tomorrow morn,
Shall find a new day for his service born

BE THRIFTY

Hoover Sees Country Progress By Thrift Week Idea

By HERBERT HOOVER

U. S. secretary of commerce who as U. S. food administrator during the war saved millions of Europeans from starvation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The whole progress of our country depends upon the individual savings of our people for when all is said and done the improvement on our homes our farms our goods our roads, railways factories, etc., are the net savings that one generation hands on to the next and our progress is marked by what we have saved and improved during our generation.

HOOVER

However vital as this fact may be to me thrift has a more intimate personal value. Saving is the only road to personal independence. I had a guaranteed income, independent of anybody for a couple of months when I saved $150. I was independent for a year when I had saved $1500. I had the courage to take the risks in trying for a better job the minute I could see a year ahead.

The End

A PUZZLE A DAY

A farmer had a square field as shown in the diagram. One quarter (A) of the field was planted. The farmer desired to divide the remainder of the field into four parts all of equal size and shape. How did he do it?

Yesterdays answer.

There were 11 boys and they had 25 cents. For each to have 3 cents 3 cents more were needed. If each took 3 cents 3 cents remained.

TWO MANY STRAY DOGS SAY ELECTRA OFFICIALS

ELECTRA, TEXAS, Jan. 17.—There are too many stray dogs in Electra according to a statement of city officials. It is their intention to be entirely fair to everyone and Pound master S. J. Cole announces that he will not make war on loose dogs until February 1. After that date every dog without a collar will be taken up.

YOU AND I

By ALBERT APPLE

GAS

American refineries in 1922 sold about 5800 million gallons of gasoline compared with 2898 million gallons in 1918.

Back of this big jump is the increasing use of the auto. The gasoline engine made the oil business. Demand for gasoline will continue increasing. Only a few years until part of the autos will have to be run on alcohol.

SKYWARD

For Sale. The Equitable building in New York city, world's largest (not tallest) office building. If you want to buy it the price is only $40,000,000. To earn that much you would have to work 40,000 years at a salary of $1,000 a year.

A rumor has been floating that Doheny the Mexican Pete oil magnate, contemplates buying the Equitable. His agents deny the rumor. The denial should have an effect on the stock market. Thousands of small stock gamblers are gullible enough to reason that purchase by Doheny would mean that he had discovered oil under the Equitable and was about to tear the building down and start drilling. At that it would be as logical as the average market 'tip.' The safest way is to flip a coin.

AUTOS

Two picked teams of eight men each race to see which can assemble a Dodge car the faster. The winner puts the car—motor top and all—together in less than 15 minutes. You don't find that kind of speed in any country except America, even in contests.

More important auto trade news is Ford's decision to build a $10,000,000 plant in St. Paul to employ 10,000 men. It will save freight, bring his product closer to the big sales field of the northwest.

This is a straw showing the way the wind blows. In next few years you'll see many other industries scatter. It will be compulsory readjustment to the growing problem transportation.

PAID

Here's information that may help you understand news of the next few months. Germany claims that she has already paid indemnity equal to nearly $16,000,000,000. Not all in cash, of course. The figure includes surrendered merchant shipping, deliveries of coal and dyes, value of lost colonies, restored property, etc.

The French have a different way of keeping books.

LOSS

Before the war when the German mark was worth about 24 cents the Hamburg American and North German Lloyd steamship lines sold $32,000,000 worth of mark bonds. These bonds have been called for redemption to be paid off April 1. Alas they'll be paid off according to shrunken value of the mark. Investors will get back about $10,000,000 for their investment of $32,000,000. Some American promoters will wag their heads admiringly. Luckily most of these bonds are held in Europe.

FABULOUS

Jackie Coogan according to his press agents is to have a steady income of $1,000,000 a year. Pretty good for a lad of eight.

The case is an exception to the so called platitudes that tell us success comes only by hard work, thrift and perseverance. However it's a true rule that still holds good for most of us. Exceptions prove the rule that holds good for the average. And there are very few Jackie Coogans. Put him out selling newspapers or delivering parcels and he'd not make any more than other boys.

Moral: Money success depends more on the line of work you follow than on the way you do the work. Follow a profitable road. It's as easy to earn $100 in some industries as $1 in others.

CELLAR

Five hundred gallons of wine are found by the police when they raid the cellar of G. F. Fossa in Nashua, N. H. Two thousand quarts. The kind of stock a home brewer dreams about.

Fossa is quoted as saying that he thought it all right to make the stuff as long as it was for his own use. He's not alone. Few home brewers realize that in making beer or light wines they are violating the Volstead act as much as the keeper of a speak easy. That part of the law is usually winked at. Will the whole prohibition amendment eventually fall into disrepute and be winked at? Many are discussing it is a plausible possibility, especially along the coasts. It's the nightmare of the dry forces.

The animal also bit a number of other dogs before it was killed. Pasteur treatment is being given the boy here the treatment serum being ordered by a local physician from Austin.

Miss Bishop sat bamused her brows knit. At last his lordship broke the silence.

He amazes me this man' said he in his slow, languid voice that never seemed to change its level. That he should alter his course for us is in itself matter for wonder but that he should take a risk on our behalf—that he should venture into Jamaica waters . . . it amazes me as I have said'.

Miss Bishop raised her eyes and looked at him.

'What is still more amusing is that he does not hold us to ransom' said she at last.

It's what you deserve'.

Oh and why if you please'.

For speaking to him as you did.

'I usually call things by their names'.

His lordship stared at her. Then he half closed his large pale eyes and rifled his head a little. I wonder why you hate him so' he said softly.

Hate him' Lord'. What a thought. I don't regard the fellow at all'.

Then ye should ma'am. His lordship spoke his thoughts frankly. He's worth regarding. He'd be an acquisition to the King's navy—a man that can do the things he did this morning.

Miss Bishop was moved to earnestness.

You should use your influence with my Lord Sunderland to have the King offer him a commission.

His lordship laughed softly. Faith it's done already. I have his commission in my pocket. And he increased her amazement by a brief exposition of the circumstances. In that amazement he left her and went in quest of Blood.

He found the Captain pacing on the quarter-deck. With the amiable familiarity he used Lord Julian slipped an arm through one of the Captain's and fell into step beside him.

What's this' snapped Blood whose mood was fierce and raw. His lordship was not disturbed.

I desire sir that we be friends' said he suavely. Then he proceeded to explain himself and his mission.

When he had done Captain Blood who until that moment had sat dazed still under the spell of his astonishment disengaged his arm from his lordship's and stood squarely before him.

You're my guest aboard this ship sir I believe and I still have some notion of decent behavior left me from other days thief and pirate though I may be. I'm not telling you what I think of you for daring to bring me this offer or of my Lord Sunderland—since he's your kinsman—for having the impudence to send it. But it does not surprise me at all that one who is a minister of James Stuart's should conceive that every man is to be seduced by bribes into betraying those who trust him. He flung out an arm in the direction of the waist whence came the half melancholy chant of the lounging buccaneers.

Again you misapprehend me' cried Lord Julian between concern and indignation. That is not intended. Your followers will be included in your commission.

And do you think they'll go with me to hunt their brethren—the Brethren of the Coast? Oh my soul! Lord Julian it is course! does the misunderstanding.

His lordship fetched a heavy sigh. Pity' he said slowly. Oh I'm sorry for me—a cursed pity. He let his hand moved to town a gesture of generous impulse. But no offense between us Captain Blood.

Oh no offense. But I am a thief and a pirate. He laughed without mirth and disregarding the proffered hand, swung on his heel.

CHAPTER XXI

The Service of King James

Miss Arabella Bishop was aroused very early on the following morning by the brazen voice of a bugle and the insistent clanging of a bell in the ship's belfry.

In his cabin on the starboard side Lord Julian disturbed by the same sounds was already astir and hurriedly dressing. When presently he emerged under the break of the poop he found Blood seated staring up into a mountain of canvas.

By the rail immediately above and behind Lord Julian stood Captain Blood in altercation with a one eyed giant whose head was swathed in a red cotton kerchief whose bare shirt hung open at the waist. As his lordship moving forward revealed himself their voices ceased and Blood turned to greet him.

Good morning to you' he said and added I've blundered badly so I have. I should have known better than to come so close in Jamaica by night. But I was in haste to land you. Come up here I have something to show you.

Wondering Lord Julian accepted the companion as he was bidden standing beside Captain Blood he looked aster following the indication of the captain's hand and cried out in his amazement. There not more than three miles away was land—an island wall of wooded green that filled the western horizon. And a couple of miles off it

"I wonder why you hate him so" he said softly

there great white ships.

The ships were but the rear part of the Jamaica fleet. Blood spoke with extreme politeness with a certain ironical stress. When dawn broke we find ourselves in sight of them. We've taken a prize even. Pity the Arabella left Port Royal a few months ago and let Lord Julian miss the sport of sinking the Spanish gunboat and its British crew.

That'll be the signal to leave' said Blood in the same latter voice and he fetched a sigh.

Wolverstone squared himself defiantly before his captain.

I'll see Colonel Bishop in hell or ever I lies for him. And he spat presumably for purpose of emphasis.

Came the roar of a second gun and a round shot splashed the water less than a half cable's length astern. Lord Julian leaned over the rail to speak to the fair young man immediately below him. The boy manned the wheel.

[illegible]

Blood removed his hat.

Steady yourself Peter. You've gone mad. Will he doom us all to hell out of tenderness for that cursed slip of a girl.

[illegible]

[illegible] message offering to surrender [illegible] Miss Bishop and Lord Julian with him but on the condition that the Arbella is allowed to proceed unharmed.

[illegible] a bargain he'll never be offered' retorted Wolverstone and [illegible] was as nothing [illegible] now. Here we are daft again to think of it, [illegible]

[illegible] so daft as you when you talk of fighting that. He flung out an arm as he spoke to indicate the purpose behind his words but more slowly and [illegible] crueller tearer. Before sunset [illegible] half mile we shall be within range.

Wolverstone swore elaborately then suddenly checked out of the tall fellow's face he had espied a trim figure in gray silk that was ascending the companion ladder. Grossed had they been that until now they had not seen Miss Bishop come from the door of the passage leading to the cabin. And there was something else that those fifteen men on the poop and Pitt immediately below them had failed to observe. [illegible] followed [illegible] of the gun deck had emerged from the booby hatch.

Captain Blood bared his head and [illegible] in a greeting which [illegible] a reverence composed and formal.

What is happening Lord Julian' she [illegible].

As if in answer he a third gun [illegible] which she was [illegible] wonderingly.

They are ships of the Jamaica [illegible] lordship answered her.

It should have been [illegible] before [illegible] their attention [illegible] at last to [illegible] who came [illegible] the [illegible] ladder and [illegible] in his wake [illegible] of which instinctively they [illegible] a vague menace.

UNITED STATES TO REMAIN HANDS OFF EUROPEAN AFFAIRS

NO INTENTION TO ACT OR MAKE SUGGESTIONS IN ANY WAY

IF EMERGENCY ARISES WILL CONSIDER MATTER

Sentiment At Washington Is Changing, According to Mark Sullivan.

By MARK SULLIVAN
National Political Correspondent of the New York Tribune Inc and Wichita Daily Times
(Copyright 1923 N Y Tribune, Inc)

WASHINGTON Jan 17—An effort to set down compactly the present state of our relation to German reparations and attendant questions so far as it can be gathered from ordinary channels of information here, would say that there is no evidence of our having any intention to take any action or make any suggestion in this field All the evidence is to the contrary, namely, that we have no present intention of doing anything about Europe either within the limited field of the reparations question or in any broader way

SULLIVAN

So much for the present As to the future if any solicitation to action should come from Europe or if any emergency should demand action our response would necessarily be adapted to whatever the circumstances might be For the sake of the light it may throw upon our present and future attitude it may be useful to sum up in a few sentences what has been our European policy for the last eight months so far as the knowledge of it could be gathered from observation

Beginning with a date soon after the close of the armament conference all the evidence gave the appearance that our European policy was one of rather complete detachment but far from identical with the policy of the senate irreconcilables on the league of nations fight The basis of that policy seemed to be that there were certain things in the nature of relief help such as cessation of military expenditures and cessation of printing paper money which Europe could only do for itself and which Europe must do before we could take a hand There appeared to be a certain amount of hope that Europe would recognize this as our policy and act upon it and that thereafter America might be able to take some affirmative action in the direction of international cooperation. In spite of reams of surmise in spite of the frequent flaring up of rumors of something important about to be done the single exception to the course of hands off was Mr Hughes suggestion in December that an informal estimate of reparations should be made by an unofficial commission of business men which was not accepted Except for that our only action consisted of the presence of unofficial observers on the reparation board and at the Lausanne conference Meantime in America the reaction to this apparent policy on the part of the public and of political critics in Washington has arrived at a mildly tolerant support after a series of complex changes Just now the general disposition is to support the administration Senator Borah apparently has no present intention of renewing his move for a conference

Even democrats and many others not democrats who disapprove of the administration's two years of foreign policy as a whole say there is not one thing the administration could do in the crisis as it exists today Back of this tolerant support however lie several curious changes in sentiment Most of the old irreconcilables are alarmed at the deflection of the best of the leaders Borah and in his absence are irritably doubtful whether they could now command or can command in 1924 the degree of popular support they had in 1920 In point of fact much of that support has been broken up by the feeling of what politicians call the church people that we ought to have been in a position to prevent what happened in Constantinople More recently an even larger deflection has been caused by the farmers coming suddenly to believe that their economic salvation is dependent on a stabilized Europe For the moment however the clear indication is that the present regime in France will not so far as America is concerned, be embarrassed in the course she has adopted until that experiment comes to the next stage

CURTAILMENT OF ALCOHOL PERMITS BY FEDERAL AGENT

WASHINGTON Jan 17—Drastic curtailment of dealing in denatured and industrial alcohol has been decided on by federal prohibition authorities as the next step in their campaign to combat the illicit liquor traffic Orders have been issued for the revocation of scores of dealers permits among these being that issued to one of the largest alcohol producing plants in the country

Decision to withdraw the license of this plant and to refuse to reissue dozens for which applications were pending was reached at a conference of prohibition enforcement officials attended by Acting Commissioner Jones Acting Director Yellowley of New York and heads of the principal bureaus at headquarters here It is understood that reports submitted by Mr Yellowley of his investigation into the sources of Christmas beverages had much to do with the order

Mr Yellowley is known to have secured evidence which convinced him that the great bulk of this supply was of domestic manufacture with illegally diverted alcohol used as a base Much of the alcohol was declared by prohibition agents to have been rectified from stocks supposedly denatured in accordance with government regulations

Alcohol used in the bootleg trade is believed by prohibition officials to come largely from stocks denatured by the addition of quinine sufficient to make the solution nauseating as a drink It has been found that by the use of a simple and easily procedure reagent the quinine can be precipitated and the clarified alcohol then syphoned off for any use the owner desires

Investigation made by Mr Yellowley in New York of recent supplies of bootleg whiskey led to seizure of 3800 gallons of redistilled alcohol and a number of stills which were designed for use in this operation The New York director obtained evidence that much of this product was retained under the guise of having been landed by rum runners

The conference of prohibition officials was kept in further detailed reports on the investigation which had been made of the recent operations of the rum runners fleet in the vicinity of Highlands N J The reports were not made public but there is now no disposition at prohibition headquarters to deny the probability that a considerable amount of liquor was landed

Columbia Banks On Pulleyn to Capture Title

BOB PULLEYN

Columbia University after a very disastrous season on the gridiron hopes to win back some prestige on the basketball courts.

Bob Pulleyn captain of the Columbia team is one of the outstanding stars of the Eastern Intercollegiate league. He has few superiors as a point getter.

Pulleyn is confident his team will win the intercollegiate title as he has an experienced varsity team to work with and plenty of high class substitutes.

H. F. DAVIS AND FAMILY VISITING LAKE PAULINE

VERNON TEXAS Jan 17—H F Davis was in Vernon Tuesday with his family on his way to Lake Pauline where they will spend a few days fishing and hunting ducks. Mr Davis lives at Electra and is engaged in the oil business. Mr Davis purchased a membership in Lake Pauline which gives him the right to hunt and fish for 15 years. The membership entitles him to the use of a club house for himself and family and use of the boats without extra charges. Those who do not have memberships pay a fee for each day and for the use of boats and quarters.

Walter Hagen Sets New Record for Lakeside Course

WALTER HAGEN

Walter Hagen British open golf champion is no respecter of seasons when it comes to breaking records. Winter or summer Hagen is equally expert on the links.

Recently he set a new record of 68 for the Lakeside Links at San Francisco in a best ball foursome. Hagen was paired with Joe Kirkwood and they defeated Gene Sarazen and Jock Hutchison by the scant margin of one up in 36 holes.

QUANAH HI QUINT WINS WEDNESDAY FROM CHILLICOTHE

QUANAH TEXAS Jan 17—Quanah high school basket ball team defeated the quintet from Chillicothe here Wednesday afternoon by the score of 40 to 29. The game was a hard fought one from start to finish and was a good deal closer than the score would indicate.

The visitors were heavier and showed perhaps better form than the home team but were not consistent in goal shooting and did not display the team work that the local players showed.

Fairless was the high point man for Quanah but was excelled by Crouch of Chillicothe. Crouch made 21 of the points for his team while Fairless accounted for 18. Wade of Quanah also showed up well making 12 points for his team. Realister at guard, was also in best of form.

An independent basket ball team has been organized here by half a dozen or more ex college men and while they do not claim to be stars they hope after a few workouts to give some tough opposition to the other independent teams around in this section.

M B Thurmond principal of the local high school has been chosen captain of the team and W. S. Foster of the Quanah Times was selected as manager. It is desired to match games with any team within a radius of a one or two days trip from Quanah and those wishing for a game are requested to write the manager at once.

Chillicothe independents will be taken on there Friday, January 26 at the same time that Quanah high team plays the high school there.

Reb Russell Figures to Rival Ruth

Russell, Like Ruth, Was Once Star Southpaw in American League

By BILLY EVANS

Babe Ruth at a time when he was regarded as the leading southpaw of the American league quit pitching to play the outfield.

Ruth thereupon developed into the greatest slugger in the history of baseball.

George Sisler came to St Louis Browns from the University of Michigan. Inside of a year he won the right to be classed as one of the best left-handers in the American league.

Sisler a great hitter and very fast was missed by the Browns when not pitching. He quit pitching at the top of his game to play first base.

Sisler has developed into the greatest first sacker of all time and one of the most remarkable hitsmen the game has ever produced.

Seeks Ruth's Laurels

Now comes another left-hander pitcher to win batting laurels. Reb Russell of the Pittsburg Nationals.

For six years Russell, as a member of the Chicago White Sox was one of the leading southpaws of the American league.

Unlike Ruth and Sisler Russell did not give up pitching at the height of his career. An injury to his pitching arm caused him to be conditionally released. He drifted back to the minors. Joe Cantillon gave him a chance at Minneapolis.

Russell started to poke them high and far. No one paid much attention to his fielding blunders. Carrying almost as much avoirdupois as Babe Ruth, naturally Reb was not in George Burns class as an outfielder.

But he could hit he could swat home runs and home run swatting was the fad up in the majors.

Thus Reb Russell, losing the sting to the left whip swatted his way back to the majors. Pittsburg bought him from Minneapolis.

Rivals Ruth as Slugger

Many of the experts insist if Babe Ruth's record of 59 homers is surpassed Russell will turn the trick. Figures tell part of Russell's ability to hit em. He was second to Rogers Hornsby in batting with an average of .368.

Veteran national league pitchers speak highly of Russell as a long distance hitter. He had one streak which comes mighty close to being almost as much avoirdupois as a record.

In a double header with St Louis on Sept 1 Russell made seven consecutive hits and the bundle included three home runs and a double. Here is what he did in the double header.

First Game

Fourth inning—Hit over the rightfield fence.

Sixth inning—Hit over the right field fence.

Eighth inning—Hit the right field wall [illegible] no for a double. Ninth inning—Singled to center.

Second Game

Second inning—Singled to left.

Fourth inning—Hit over the right field fence.

Sixth inning—Singled to center.

The streak stopped in the seventh inning when he grounded to Topporcer at short. Pitchers of experience were the victims. Bill Doak and Bill Sherrica doing the hurling in the first game and Ed Pfeffer in the second.

COULD JACK DEMPSEY BREAK HEADLOCK CLAMPED BY LEWIS

How Dempsey would look in the clutches of the headlock as clamped on by Lewis.

If Jack Dempsey should ever meet Strangler Lewis in a mixed match could Dempsey break the deadly headlock which has won so many matches for Lewis?

When the question was put to Dempsey he amply replied.

Why worry about that feature of the match—there isn't a chance in the world for Lewis to get the headlock on me.

I figure a couple of stiff punches to the stomach and a right to the jaw will soon settle the bout. The stomach muscles of the wrestlers won't stand much mauling.

On the other hand Lewis figures that one round will be about all that Dempsey will last.

I don't believe Dempsey would last over a round. That is about as long as he would be able to keep his feet. Once I forced Dempsey to the floor the match would soon be over.

What do you think about it?

BASKET BALL QUIZ by Referee

REFEREE'S DECISION

If some feature that is not definitely covered by the rules comes up during a game same interfering with the play of one of the teams what ruling can be made on such a point?

It is up to the referee to reach a decision on any point that is not covered by the rules. It is within his jurisdiction to call a foul for any action on the part of the players or spectators that he regards as unsportsmanlike even though such action is not covered in the playing code.

CLOSELY GUARDED

If a player who is closely guarded holds the ball on the floor and makes no attempt to put it in play is it a foul or held ball?

If the player is closely guarded the referee always rules it a held ball and puts it in play with a toss up. Usually the referee reaches such a decision quickly in order to avert fouling which often happens on a held ball.

BULLSEYES of BASEBALL

COPYRIGHT BY NEA SERVICE — By BILLY EVANS

No 14—THE MOST AMUSING SITUATION I EVER SAW

To Dave Altizer goes the credit of creating the most amusing situation I have ever seen on the ball field. It happened that I was forced to play the leading role in the spectacle, since I was the umpire. If it had all been in earnest Dave would probably have been suspended for life for the way he handled me.

Altizer had just been released by Cleveland to Chicago. Now if there is one thing a ball player likes to do it is to go well against a club that has turned him loose.

Late in the game with one down Altizer reached first on a hit. The next batter gave him the hit and run sign. Altizer was off with the pitch. The batsman sent a terrific line drive right into the hands of George Stovall playing first base. Stovall merely stepped on the bag completing a double play and retiring the side.

As Altizer neared second the Chicago catcher at third yelled, "Slide Dave slide!" Altizer went into the bag feet first. Stovall seeing the play, threw the ball over second into center field.

Getting to his feet Altizer dashed for third. Joe Birmingham got the ball and threw it badly to Bill Bradley at third and Altizer kept on his way to the plate. The throw to the plate beat Altizer, but the Cleveland catcher purposely missed him.

Then, of course to cap the climax I declared Altizer out, although he had been missed a foot.

I tried my best to get away from him but he grabbed my protector kicked my mask and shoved me hither and thither while the crowd roared. He delayed the game at least five minutes before he would take his position.

It was not until the next inning that he learned that he had run wild after being doubled up at first. Then he apologized. It sure was a comedy classic.

Tomorrow The funniest play I ever saw.

BEGIN CAREER AT SHORTSTOP, STAR AT SOME OTHER POSITION

It is a rather peculiar coincidence that three players now starring at other positions, began their major league careers at shortstop. Eddie Collins Joe Dugan and Johnny McInnes.

Collins came to Mack from Columbia university. He was tried at short third and right field before they switched to second where he became one of the greatest players in the history of the game.

McInnes came to Mack from high school at Haverhill Mass. He had his troubles at shortstop. The world laughed when Mack tried so short a player at first but the success attained by McInnes proved Mack knew what he was doing.

Joe Dugan came to the Athletics from Holy Cross college and for a time seemed destined to star at short. Later it was found that third base was his proper position.

Collins is rated the best second sacker in either major league. Joe Dugan leads the American league at third base. There are few better at first base than McInnes.

NINETEEN MURDER CASES REMAIN ON COURTS' DOCKETS

TOTAL OF 2408 CASES COMPOSE DOCKETS OF COURTS IN THIS COUNTY.

FIGURES PREPARED TO SHOW LEGISLATORS

Active Steps Taken to Keep From Removing 30th District Court From County.

Nineteen murder cases remained on the dockets of the three district courts at noon Wednesday, according to a check made by District Clerk A F Kerr who was asked to prepare a set of figures to be presented to the state legislature in an effort to convince them that it would be unwise to remove the 30th district court from Wichita county

The check-up revealed that a total of 2,408 cases, civil and criminal, are still alive on the dockets This number, it is said, represents sufficient amount of work to keep three courts busy here for a period of 18 months or two years, not counting the new business that is being continually filed

The local bar association appointed a committee at its annual meeting last Saturday night to look after the interests of Wichita county in this proposed legislation Every effort will be made to keep the three district courts in this county

The cases as enumerated by the district clerk are divided among the three courts as follows

Thirtieth 498 civil and 243 criminal, of which 13 are murder cases

Seventy-eighth 698 civil and two criminal cases, both of which are murder cases

Eighty-ninth 680 civil and 88 criminal cases, four of which are murder cases

The data was gotten up by the district clerk in response to a request made by members of the committee appointed by the bar association last week

It is understood that several members of this committee are planning to make the trip to Austin equipped not only with this data, but with other convincing arguments that the 30th district court should be kept in Wichita county

"What are they playing?" Jack asked. "Why, that's hide and seek," said a snow man "Do you want to join us?" "I'd be glad to," replied Jack "I know how to play that game well." But Jack soon found that it was a lot different than the hide and seek he had played back in his town

"Now, we'll run and hide," shouted several snow men Jack buried his head in his arms and counted up to 10. He heard the snow men running away, but when he opened his eyes again he couldn't see a single one of them. That's funny, thought Jack. Where can they be? (Continued.)

BANKERS ASK THAT STATE DEPARTMENT BE NON-POLITICAL

WANT GOVERNOR TO APPOINT AFTER BANKS MAKE RECOMMENDATION

ADOPT RESOLUTION AT CLOSING SESSION

Also Ask That Change Be Made in Administering of Guaranty Fund

A resolution declaring that the state banking department should be non-political was adopted at the closing session of the district state bankers convention in Wichita Thursday afternoon. The resolution asks for an amendment to the present state banking law which provides that the governor may appoint the state banking commissioner without advice of the bankers.

It was expected that a resolution will be introduced at the convention asking that the state guaranty fund be administered by officers of the state instead of by officers of the state association, it was learned today.

The convention adopted a resolution favoring the elimination of the inheritance tax, and a resolution favoring the exemption of the guaranty fund from taxation. The convention also adopted a resolution favoring the calling of a convention of the state officials and the state legislature for the purpose of considering the advisability of having the state assume the liquidation of the guaranty fund, which is now being realized upon as assets are available.

The bankers will adjourn at the Wichita Falls meeting today.

FORMER MEMBER OF 'KLAN' RECALLED

was the first witness called today. Carpenter testified previously as to the arrest of Alonzo Braddock who was turned over to him by a part of men including Captain J. K. Skipwith parish leader of the Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. Carpenter the other day when Braddock was on the stand he identified he made an effort to obtain bond after spending the night technically under arrest and that you told him that the district judge was not here and you would have to take him to a justice of the peace. It that correct. Carpenter was asked.

Yes sir.

Was it then that the warrant to search the house was made out.

Yes.

Higginbotham Testifies

Tom R. Higginbotham the next witness was questioned as to roads leading from Bastrop and Mer Rouge to his home and how to reach the home of E. N. Gray which he said was on the Collee swamp road.

What was the warning received by your cousin William Higginbotham?

It told him if he did not leave negro women alone and bootleg whiskey they would get him. The letter was signed "Not Your Friend."

You are a member of the Klan?

Yes.

You knew Watt Daniel, J. L. Daniel, W. C. Andrews, Tot Davenport and T. E. Richard.

Yes.

Have you ever heard them discussed in the klan.

No sir.

Did you see E. N. Gray on Aug. 24?

Yes I picked him up on the road on the outside of town. He told me my cousin had asked him to come out there.

The witness described seeing a black hooded men in an automobile and a truck hauling prisoners away after the kidnaping of Daniel, Richard and others August 24 last. He said he and Gray continued on the way to William Higginbotham's home and talked about what they had passed.

How long did you and Mr. Gray stay at your house that night?

We sat under the pecan trees until after the black hooded men came which was about midnight.

The witness said he and Gray went to the home of his cousin William Higginbotham because of the threatening letters received by the latter, and upon their return to his home they found the door open.

Did you see Richard and Daniel that night?

No sir.

When did you first hear about this kidnaping?

Well, I met the mob that night but I don't know who they were. When I saw them I was going away as fast as I could.

Do you know anything about anonymous letters like the one your cousin received?

I hear Captain Skipwith got threatening letters.

You are not sure Captain Skipwith got the letters—you just heard so?

No I'm not sure.

Higginbotham finished his testimony just at the hour set for the midday recess.

FORMER MEMBER KLAN IS FURTHER EXAMINED

BASTROP, LA., Jan. 17.—E. N. Gray who testified that he joined the Ku Klux Klan to see what it was but later resigned was on the stand for further examination by state attorneys today in the open hearing of inquiry into the kidnaping of Watt Daniel and Thomas Richard and other alleged masked band operations in Morehouse parish.

Nearly a dozen other witnesses including Fred L. Carpenter parish sheriff were to be called to testify during the day.

Gray's testimony was halted momentarily yesterday by a protest made by W. H. Hodd a Bastrop attorney against certain lines of questioning because of a newspaper sketch which Todd said indicated that Gray might be named as a defendant in a criminal action. Judge Fred L. Odom ruled that no answer need be required to questions that might involve statements of a possibly incriminating nature.

Gray took the witness stand after a half dozen other witnesses had testified as to previous alleged incidents in troubled Morehouse during the past six months including the statements of two witnesses as to a visit said to have been made to a church near Mer Rouge by a masked hooded delegation who gave warning to the attendants at the service then of progress against anti-klan activities. Two witnesses, G. W. Walke and J. W. Hayden asserted that they recognized Dr. B. M. McKoin former mayor of Mer Rouge and a man named Kirkpatrick as members of the party.

Gray testified that he went at the request of Captain Skipwith of the Klan to Monroe where he was given instructions by the imperial officers of the Klan. He said he held a conference with Skipwith and Captain Cole of Shreveport and was told that the Klan was organized in Louisiana and was not connected with the Klan in other states. He said he was told that the Klan was not connected with the Klan in other states. He said he was told that the Klan was not connected with the Klan in other states. He said he was told that the Klan

SPARROWS THINK SPRING HAS ARRIVED, PREPARE TO START HOUSEKEEPING

The continued spell of unseasonably warm weather has fooled some of Mother Nature's proteges in and around Wichita Falls

The English sparrows think spring has come and are getting married after the rather loose fashion of their kind, and are building nests around the eaves of some downtown buildings

They are worse fooled than are the peach trees, which are just about to bud, and which will be actually budding if the warm weather continues ten days more, however the nights have been colder recently and this has retarded budding to some extent A few days more of warm weather will develop the trees to an extent that will prove disastrous when cold weather returns

Winter pasturage in the wheat fields is disappointing, as a result of the dry weather but the wheat can go many weeks yet without rain, according to County Agricultural Agent Guy R Jones

Mr Jones points out that crop conditions generally are very favorable many farmers taking full advantage of the pleasant weather to put their fields in first class condition for corn and cotton planting in the spring

Off to school on a winter morning

—fresh and rosy—or pinched and chilly? That's a matter for Mother to decide.

Children, as well as grown-ups, need a hot mealtime beverage that is wholesome, invigorating, and free from harmful after-effects.

Coffee is known to be harmful—especially to children. That is why so many thoughtful mothers give their children delicious Postum. This pure cereal beverage gives needed warmth and comfort, has delightful flavor and aroma, and is free from anything that can injure the health of children or adults.

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared; made by boiling fully 20 minutes.
